Naples, Sept. 12, N. S. On the 5th Inſtant two of the King's Half Gallies return'd into this Port from the Preſidii, where they had carried Money for the Payment of thoſe Garriſons.

ſons. On the 7th the Inhabitants of this City granted to the King 650,000 Ducats, and to the Queen 50,000, as a Free Gift, on the Birth of the young Prince, beſides 12,000 Ducats towards the Expence of the publick Rejoycings, which are fix'd from the 4th to the 19th of November next.

Florence, Sept. 19, N. S. On the 10th, M. de Richecourt returned to this City, from a Tour to view the new propoſed Road from this City, by Barberino di Mugello, &c. to Bologna, which having been found impracticable, all Thoughts of it have been laid aſide, and therefore Orders are given to repair the uſual Road by the Giogo, for the Conveyance of Goods between Tuſcany and Lombardy, which are from thence to be forwarded to the Port of Lago Scuro in the Ferrareſe, in order to be embarked on Veſſels, which are to croſs the Adriatick every Fortnight to Trieſte. On the 15th, a French Courier from Genoa to Rome and Naples, paſſed by this City, with Advice, that the French and Genoeſe Troops, which had lately been detached from Genoa to Corſica, had attacked and routed the Malecontents before Baſtia, and had freed that Place, with the Loſs of about 700 of them, and diſperſed the reſt.

Frankfort, Sept. 25, N. S. Two Days ago we received News of the Duke of Wirtemberg's being taken dangerouſly ill of a Fever. The Elector Palatin will arrive this Night at Bingen, and proceed To-morrow to Manheim without paſſing through this City.

Hambourgh, Sept. 26, N. S. The Stadtholder of Ducal Holſtein is arrived here, to have Advice for his Health.

Hague, Oct. 6, N. S. Letters from Paris of the 6th Inſtant affirm, That a Squadron of ſeven Ships of War and Frigates ſailed from Breſt ſome Days before for the Iſle of Aix, in order to eſcort a Fleet of Merchantmen to America.

Rotterdam, Oct. 6, N. S. An Order came down this Morning from the Hague, not to grant any more Paſſes to the Veſſels that were before allowed to carry Proviſions to the Low Countries now poſſeſſed by the French.

Head Quarters at Argenteau, Oct. 9, N. S. Marſhal Saxe's Army is entirely retired behind the Dyle, and Part of the Namur Garriſon is already marched to their Deſtination. Though our Huſſars follow'd the French even to the Dyle, yet they have not had the good Fortune to take above 100 or 150 Priſoners; but among them is the Chevalier de Mezieres, a Major-General, who was taken at St. Tron, and ſays, that Marſhal Saxe was very near being taken at the ſame Time. Next Friday the 13th, N. S. the Britiſh Troops will move to Maeſtricht, from whence, after halting a Day or two, to move the Hoſpitals, and embark the heavieſt Part of the Artillery, they will march on to between Breda and Boiſleduc.

Hague, Oct. 10, N. S. Laſt Saturday the Body of the Nobles propoſed in the Aſſembly of Holland, that the Dignity of Stadtholder ſhould be made hereditary in the Prince of Orange's Family, and that in Caſe his Highneſs ſhould die without Male Iſſue, it ſhould then deſcend to his eldeſt Daughter, and her Heirs Male. The Deputies ſent this Propoſition to their reſpective Cities, in order to receive Inſtructions thereupon. It has been propoſed in the States of Guelderland, to take off the Reſtrictions contained in the Prince of Orange's Commiſſion as Stadtholder of that Province, and to make out a new one conformable to that of Holland. The States of Guelderland will alſo follow the Example of thoſe of Overyſſel, in taxing the Magiſtrates and Members of the Government 500 Florins each. The Prince of Orange ſet out Yeſterday by the Way of Mardyk, for the Army at Oudenboſch; from whence his Highneſs is expected back ſome Time next Week. Before his Highneſs ſet out, he received the News of Fort Frederick Hendrick having capitulated, the Garriſon to be Priſoners of War. M. de Beauſobre, a Brigadier in the French Army, was taken Priſoner a few Days ago with ſeveral of his Men, by a French Officer, to whom the Prince of Orange has given the Command of a Free Company.

Rotterdam, Oct. 10, N, S. Our Burghers are to be reviewed To-morrow; and thoſe who have not good Arms, are to have them at the Town's Expence.

Admiralty-Office, October 1.

On the 27th paſt, Captain Shirley, Commander of His Majeſty's Ship the Dover, brought into Plymouth the Renommee, a French Man of War of 32 Guns, and about 300 Men, which he met with on the 13th paſt in the Soundings, and took after a ſharp Engagement. She had on board M. de Conflans, who was going to his Government at St. Domingo.
